Catholic Filipino Academy (CFA) taekwondo jin struck bronze in the recently concluded NCR Milo Little Olympics held last August 14, 2011 at Ninoy Aquino Stadium, Manila.

Angelina Nicole B. Videna, 10 years old, Grade 5 proved that she can compete in the Grade School Girls Advance Division for the second time. Proud to represent CFA, she won against public and private schools.

In every event she entered in, she would always ask God for strength, guidance and wisdom. She attributes her success to the love given to her by her parents who never fails in supporting her in all her extra-curricular activities.
